¹ Debtors have repaid the Pre-Petition ABL to the required minimum balance of $100,000. Furthermore, as of October 31, 2020 the Debtors have no outstanding borrowings against either their Post-Petition ABL DIP or their DIP Term Loan.

² The Debtors did not list any Priority liabilities in their Schedules of Assets and Liabilities. Debtors received authority to make payments on account of Pre-Petition Wages and related employee benefits and certain Pre-Petition Taxes Because the authority granted is sufficient to satisfy all known such liabilities, the Debtors do not believe that they have exposure to Priority Claim Liabilities.

³ Payments against unsecured liabilities represent payments made under authority granted in the Debtors' Trade Order to certain foreign vendors, shippers and warehousemen and miscellaneous lien claimants.
